light has no mass so it also has no energy according to einstein Jun 02 2020 apr 01 2014 now there is an interesting additional effect contained in the general equation if a particle has no mass  $m = 0$  and is at rest  $p = 0$  then the total energy is zero  $e = 0$  but an object with zero energy and zero mass is nothing at all therefore if an object with no mass is to physically exist it can never be at rest such is the case
